NVC Commander's Column

By Michael J. Yaguchi

I had a finished column a couple of weeks before the deadline – it was full of holiday cheer and stories about lousy holiday ties and food. But yesterday changed everything.

I dropped off a lovely couple at the airport, and a line of cars was slowly creeping along, and merging was going to be tough. A sharp-looking soldier stepped out of the car in front of me, and he helped his mom out of the vehicle. The other occupant wasn't having much success hauling the soldier's tightly packed and heavy duffle bag out of the trunk, so I hopped out to help. The mom gripped her son and said, "Your dad says to do your job with honor and not bring shame on your family's long service history." An airport traffic officer tried to get my attention to move my car. But I merely pointed to the son and mother. The officer looked over, softly muttered, "hooah," and stepped away. She must have been an Army veteran.

Watching this reminded me of the stories I've read about what the parents of the WWII Nisei soldier told them before shipping out. The raw emotion I witnessed on December 9th gave me an even better appreciation of their feelings as their son went to war.

The Nisei soldier's legacy of duty, honor, and loyalty is a gift. I had an early Christmas present that night on December 9th. I'll remember that moment, how I felt, and what it reminded me of for many years.

NVC Foundation President's Column

By Shawn Brinsfield

I was standing in the NVC parking lot during the recent Nisei Lunch, getting into the holiday spirit, greeting and helping the many NVC Foundation and NVC members park their cars. I felt grateful as these Nisei and Sansei walked from the cold outside and into the warmth of a shared heritage and wafting aroma of a special meal inside. I appreciated that these community members were really being taken care of. I savored it, comparing it to what their families were going through eighty years ago.

The Holiday Season is a ripe time for being grateful and thankful. May we fully enjoy our friends and families with the caring spirit which pervades this time of year. And in that same spirit, may we remember others who don't share the same blessings as we have. So many. Among them are the hundreds of millions around the world, forced to relocate, forced to leave their homes, often 'taking only what they can carry.' As we bear witness, please consider expressing your Holiday Spirit with solidarity and kinship. Groups such as the International Rescue Committee and Doctors without Borders would love to get a visit from you and Santa.

Wishing you all Happy Holidays!

Nisei Lunch for December 2023

By Keith Yamaguchi

It has been said that a picture is worth a thousand words and this article about the December Nisei Lunch will be told utilizing photos taken by Janice Kunitsugu. I was on a short vacation and unable to attend the lunch in person, however, through Janice's camera lens I was there enjoying the food and the good vibes of the Nisei Lunch.

The December Nisei Lunch has always been one of the most popular and well attended lunches of the year. Perhaps this is because of the time of the year or perhaps because of Terry Takeuchi's Prime Rib (sometimes it is another cut of meat because of cost factors—but always delicious).

I wanted to make a comment or two regarding the Nisei Lunch program. Since its beginning in 2015, we have weathered the ups and downs associated with the COVID era without missing a beat. When COVID prohibited personal interaction, we continued the program by instituting a lunch delivery program which is still in effect today. We've combined a delivery network along with an in-person dining option.

This brings me to another point—the December Nisei Lunch in-person dining levels are back to pre-pandemic levels, which is good news, however the growth of the in-person diners also means that we reach our capacity to serve our guests much quicker. I had to turn down reservation requests for the first time since the in-person dining option returned three years ago (or thereabouts).

I felt very bad about having to do this, however we needed to limit the room capacity to provide a comfortable atmosphere for both our guests and our volunteer servers. Having too many guests would be counterproductive to creating an atmosphere in which folks could casually chat and visit with one another. We also needed to make sure our volunteer servers would be able to bus tables and serve the meals in a safe setting.

As a suggestion regarding future Nisei Lunch reservations, I would recommend that you respond to our Nisei Lunch reminder emails as quickly as possible. I usually send out these email reminders a couple of weeks before the lunch and again one week before the lunch. Our RSVP list is compiled on a "first come-first served" basis, and I would hate for any of you to miss out on a delicious meal -- and more importantly, miss the opportunity to visit and "catch up" with old friends.

From the entire Nisei Lunch volunteer group, we wish you a wonderful Holiday Season celebration with family and friends.

JGSDF Visit By Michael Yaguchi

The 8th Infantry Regiment of the Japanese Ground Self-Defense Force (JGSDF) and elements of the US Army's 7th Infantry Division concluded their joint training at the Yakima Training Center in support of Rising Thunder 2023 on November 10th. The exercise is designed to enhance interoperability and combat readiness between the US and Japan.

Colonel ABE, Commander, 8th Infantry Regiment, JGSDF, his commissioned officers, and senior noncommissioned officers visited NVC Memorial Hall to learn about the experiences of the WWII Nisei soldier.

Colonel ABE and staff share a light moment during the tour of NVC Memorial Hall.

February 19, 2024, marks 82 years since President Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, which authorized the military to remove over 120,000 Japanese Americans from their homes on the West Coast and detain them in inland prison camps. Many JAs in King and Pierce counties were first detained at Puyallup Fairground before long-term incarceration at Minidoka, ID and Tule Lake, CA. Today, just ten miles away in Tacoma, hundreds of migrants from the southern border are being held in the Northwest Detention Center. Families are still being separated.
